Garry intricately blends a friendly demeanor with competitive results.

Garry brings a diverse range of legal history to his daily practice, allowing for a seamless culmination of behind-the-scenes workflow and industry best practices. Prior to working in the role of attorney, Garry supervised Weltman's bankruptcy department, working hands-on to assure the highest levels of quality were met while servicing the borrowers who filed for bankruptcy.

Garry's clients are oftentimes looking for guidance on the path they should take in handling their consumers' bankruptcy accounts. He understands the great complexity and strict timelines of the bankruptcy process can weigh on his clients, so he works efficiently and proactively to maximize their recovery.

Born and raised in Ohio, Garry loves supporting all of the state's sports – he particularly loves rooting for his alma mater, The Ohio State University. He and his wife love visiting Alaska and playing with their three dogs. He thanks his grandparents for molding him into the person he is today, adding that his grandpa taught him the importance of perseverance and to always keep a smile, even in the most difficult of situations.
