Clients first. This depicts Denise's empathy and ability to relate to her client's particular situations, as well as her ability to explain things in a way that her clients can understand.

Denise's experience in multiple areas of the law, as well as her interaction with clients, consumers, and opposing counsel of varying backgrounds, positions her well for her current role. She has represented clients in bankruptcy, family law, employment, and labor disputes. Denise has nearly 20 years of experience in working with clients, opposing counsel, and the public.

Her father, being a police officer for over 25 years, inspired her to get involved in law. She enjoys helping the "average Joe" to succeed in their collection efforts and support themselves, their families, and their organizations.

Outside of the office, Denise is a mother of two - she enjoys watching her son play baseball and spending quality time with her daughter. She also loves nearly all genres of movies (Star Wars being one of her favorites).
