Tiffani provides a unique perspective on the challenges that insurers face regarding their subrogation actions.

Tiffani practices exclusively in insurance subrogation, with more than ten years of experience in the application of the Michigan No-Fault Act, including three years as a claims adjuster for a major nationwide insurance company. Her combination of experiences allows her to approach subrogation recovery with a comprehensive understanding of both sides in the legal and insurance landscape.

Tiffani is approachable and well-versed in every aspect of her job and cares deeply about her clients and their recovery solutions. Her clients tend to be insurance companies, third-party administrators, and subrogation recovery agencies.

While obtaining her Master's Degree at Western Michigan University, Tiffani worked with several companies as a consultant applying principles to organizations with the goal of improving individual and group performance. In addition to her professional writing, Tiffani is a passionate poet.
